

Orangewood Announces Capacity Building Sub-Award Grantees

On May 13, 2010, Orangewood Children's Foundation, lead agency of the Orange County Capacity Building Program (OCCBP), announced the sub-award recipients of its competitive application process. The sub-awards are provided through a two-year Federal grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Strengthening Communities Fund.

In the first of two grant award cycles, seven nonprofits were chosen to receive capacity building assistance in the form of training, coaching, and one-on-one consulting, along with customized workshops and organizational assessments. Four of the seven grantee organizations will receive financial awards to assist with their proposed capacity building projects.

The following organizations have been selected to receive OCCBP technical and financial assistance sub-awards:

- Access California Services (www.accesscal.org)
